SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Multiplication of the Loaves

“There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?”

John 6:9

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I: 2 Kings 4:42-44
Reading II: Ephesians 4: 1-6
Gospel: John 6: 1-15

Were you ever in a situation where there was not enough food to go around? It may have been a family situation, a social function, or a third world country. In the group there were pessimists who complained of the shortage. On the other hand, there may have been optimists present who used their ingenuity to generate alternative ideas. Were there people who tried to hoard? In the Gospel today, Jesus finds himself, the disciples, and a large crowd of people numbering some five thousand, in a situation of shortage. The only food they had among them was five barley loaves and two fish. But Jesus was an optimist. He asked the troubled people to sit down. Then he took the loaves, gave thanks, and had them distributed. He did the same with the fish. The hunger of all was satisfied, and there were twelve baskets of scraps left over. The abundance of bread is a sign of God's abundance and a call to us, as Eucharistic people, to feed the hungry.

This weekend the local Vicar Forane, Fr. Patrick Henehan, will be present at the 9:30 am Mass to formally install me in the Office of Pastor. The vocal Vicar is the representative of the Bishop who has entrusted me with this responsibility.

During the rite of installation, I must make a Profession of Faith and an Oath of Fidelity, promising to teach the mysteries of the Faith truthfully and completely. This profession is made before the parishioners of the Parish (represented by those present at the 9:30 am Mass), indicating the commitment that I make to the people of St. Thomas.

Thank you for your prayers and support and the warm welcome that I have received from each of you.

All Are Welcome

A church with open doors

*What do I do to make the Church a community where everyone feels welcomed and understood, everyone feels the mercy and love of God who renews life?
—Pope Francis, General Audience, May 29, 2013*

Each of us can make our parish a more welcoming place to newcomers, persons with disabilities, and persons with special needs. Here are a few ideas"

- ⇒ If you see a parent struggling with a child's behavior, offer a friendly smile, a sympathetic nod, or a helping hand.
- ⇒ If you see a person physically struggling to get in, hold open a door, scoot down in the pew, or offer to carry something.
- ⇒ If you see a person exhibiting unusual behavior, understand that it might be a sign of a disability. Embrace the person as a child of God and understand that each of us has different ways of receiving and communicating God's love.
- ⇒ If you see someone who is disheveled or out of sorts, consider that he or she might be in dire straits. Act with compassion.
- ⇒ Some people may struggle to get to or sit through the Mass. Offer a ride, an open door, or simply acceptance and understanding.
- ⇒ A warm smile, a nod, or a small kindness can make all the difference.

Peace Pal Volunteers Needed

Jesus once said, "Let the children come to me." This is what the volunteers in a program called Peace Pals at Trewyn Grade School try to do. Many times, as often as once a week, the volunteer meets with three students from either first, second, third or fourth grade, one at a time, for 20-30 minutes each. The time and book is chosen by the teacher to fit both her and your schedule. If you think you would like to be a Peace Pal and make a difference in a child's life, contact Louise McCann, 243-5722 or email her a gjmccann1@comcast.net.

Holding Each Other

A woman’s happiness was shattered by the loss of her brother, a good man, dearly loved. Torn by anguish, she kept asking God, “Why?” But hearing only silence, she set out in search of an answer. She had not gone far when she came upon an old man sitting on a bench. He was weeping. He said, “I have suffered a great loss. I am a painter, and I have lost my eyesight.” He, too, was seeking an answer to the question, “Why?” The woman invited him to join her and, taking him by the arm, they trudged down the road.

Soon they overtook a young man walking aimlessly. He had lost his wife, the source of his joy, to another man. He joined in the search of an answer to the “Why” question. Shortly they came upon a young woman weeping on her front doorstep. She had lost her child. She, too, joined them. Nowhere could they find an answer.

Suddenly they came upon Jesus Christ. Each confronted him with their questions, but Jesus gave no answer. Instead, he began to cry and said, “I am bearing the burden of a woman who has lost her brother, a girl whose baby died, a painter who has lost his eyesight, and a young man who has lost a love in which he delighted.” As he spoke, the four moved closed, and they embraced each other. And they grasped Jesus’ hands.

Jesus spoke again saying, “My domination is the domination of the heart. I cannot prevent pain. I can only heal it.” “How?” asked the woman. “By sharing it,” he said. And the he was gone. And the four?

They were left standing, holding each other.

Addressing Poverty St. Vincent de Paul Society

From the very beginning of the St. Vincent de Paul Society in Paris, France in 1833, the Society’s purpose has been to increase the spiritual growth of its members through direct service to the poor. With your generous donations, our parishes’ Vincentians provide emergency financial assistance, after a home visit, to those in need in Peoria Heights, in the 61603 zip code area, and to parishioners. Your donations also support the parish Food Pantry. But how can we help the poor in the long run?

Getting Ahead in a Just-Getting-by-World...

For over a year, the St. Vincent de Paul Society in the Peoria diocese and St. Thomas Vincentians have been working to create a program to directly help the poor change their life, especially those in generational poverty. Using the “Bridges Out of Poverty” program from Aha Process Inc., the Society is sponsoring the inaugural “Coming Together to Get Ahead” Workshop for people wanting to develop a personal plan and identify the necessary resources they need to move out of poverty. Persons interested in taking this 16 week class, on Mondays, from 11:30 am —3:00 pm, beginning August 24th at the East Side (St. Bernard) Community Center, should call 677-7696 opt3 for more information.

We need volunteer (teams) to provide lunches for 15 or 30. Drinks and all tableware will be provided. Please contact Craig Berger at 678-8162.

Our parish St. Vincent de Paul Society is always seeking new members. We meet once a month on the second Tuesday at 7:00 pm in the original church basement. If interested in joining us, call Mike Sims, 696-8237.

SVdP’s service to the poor begins with the generous donations from our parishioners. Next weekend, the first weekend of August, ushers will receive your contributions after each Mass. Thank you for your generosity and everything you do for the poor and the St. Vincent de Paul Society.
