19th SUNDAY in Ordinary Time

Vigilant and Faithful Servants

"You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come."

Luke 12:40

© 2016 Diocesan Publications, Inc.

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I: Wisdom	18: 6-9
Reading II: Hebrews	11: 1-2,8-19
Gospel: Luke	12:32-48

By means of their faith the Hebrew people knew that God would be faithful to them. They waited for the day when the just would be saved and the enemy destroyed. When, through Moses, the Lord called them out of Egypt, they were ready to go. Their faith and courage in the Lord led the way. Jesus tells the disciples that they are not to fear. Like the Hebrews, they can put their faith in God. And like the Hebrews, they too are called to be prepared for the Lord's coming at any time. Called to be faith-filled, they are to live a life that speaks of their readiness for the coming of the Son of Man. It is a life of constant faithfulness to God in every activity. Because much has been given to them, much will be asked of the disciples.

From the Pastor

Over the past year, it has come to my attention that a small amount of water has entered the church building between the nave and the gathering space. Over the summer, it appears that we have identified the source of the leak. Work has been done this past week to seal the gaps and make internal cosmetic repairs. I am happy that we have identified the problem. The cost of repairs will be covered by parish savings.

A second project should take place during the next month. I have received a bid to place a suspended ceiling in the church basement in order to reduce the ambient noise in that space, especially when large groups use that area. I thank you for your generosity in responding to the parish annual giving program at the end of 2015. As had been announced, the funds from that appeal will pay for this important improvement in our church basement.

Msgr. Gray

Care for our Neighbors

Sometimes We Say "Sorry, No"

The St. Thomas family is generous. You are generous. You fill our pantry, and each month you donate money for the benefit of people in crisis. You trust the St. Thomas Vincentians to use your money wisely. We try very hard to do just that, even if it means saying "no."

We look for real need, and we certainly do assist many people in crisis. However, we do not offer financial "fixes" repeatedly to the same people. We do not pay rent for people in crisis if there does not appear to be any budget in place, or any way for them to sustain themselves and continue to stay in the same place. We do not give money directly to clients, and we verify the amounts owed to Ameren, other utility companies, landlords, etc, and we visit people and try always to listen carefully, and, yes, sometimes we break our own "rules" if we justify doing so.

We do offer food as needed. We do provide information about many community resources regarding job finding, budgeting, educational and counseling opportunities, housing and so on. We may assist with furniture from the St. Joseph Furniture Bank or the Habitat for Humanity Restore. We often suggest that clients consider the "Coming Together To Get Ahead" program sponsored by the Vincentian community in the Peoria area. Some become interested in making a commitment to this program and to work on lifting themselves our of chronic poverty.

Please continue to share your personal resources. This is our busiest time of the year. Thank you—we promise to be good stewards.
