31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Therefore, do and observe all things whatsoever they tell you, but do not follow their example. For they preach but they do not practice.

Matthew 23:3

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I: Malachi 1:14b-2:2b,8-10
Reading II: 1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9,13
Gospel: Matthew 23:1-12

“Practice what you preach” is a line all of us have heard many times. In today’s Gospel Jesus addresses it to religious people. When we look at all four Gospels, we see that Jesus is continually frustrated and angered by people who put on ornate religious rituals without making the love of God and neighbor part of their everyday living. People in leadership should not think they are better than everyone else. Jesus has a narrow definition of service. “the greatest among you will be the one who serves the rest.” Service is given by someone who is humble, that is, who knows who they truly are in God’s sight.

Thank you for your adjustment to our new Mass schedule. With the help of our ushers, we periodically measure the attendance at our Masses. While the total overall attendance from last weekend remained about the same as previous, with one less Mass, each individual Mass had a greater number of people participating. I think that we are often encouraged when we come to a Mass that is well attended rather than sparsely attended. It is also good for each of us to have a greater opportunity to meet more of our fellow parishioners.

Another benefit to this schedule is that there is an interval of 2 hours between Masses rather than 90 minutes. This means that we do not need to be rushed between Masses, especially when we have a social activity. In fact, on Sunday morning, coffee and donuts will be offered thanks to the volunteers from the Knights of Columbus. This is the perfect time to share a refreshment and some fellowship with other parishioners.

-Msgr Gray

NOTES

Church operating revenue is under budget by $133,000 for the year while church expenses are also under budget by $31,000 resulting in an excess of revenues over expenses of $254,000. Our revenue is under budget in part because a lower regular collection, but more so because we have not received bequests so far this fiscal year similar to previous years. Even if church revenue is less than budgeted, we have fortunately made up for this in the unrealized appreciation of our church long term investments.

The school's revenue is slightly over budget with expenses over budget by $114,000. The additional expense has come mostly from a one-time cost to adjust the payment of our teacher salaries to correspond with our fiscal year. We appreciate the continued generosity of our parishioners, the dedicated work of our volunteers, and the staff attention to controlling costs.

We would like to thank all of our parishioners for your regular weekly or monthly giving. Please remember to be generous with your parish. As we approach the end of the calendar year, please remember our St. Thomas Annual Giving Program and our Sponsor a Student fund to help families in need. We also encourage you to remember St. Thomas when planning your estate. Many thoughtful parishioners list St. Thomas Church, St. Thomas School, or our Msgr. Watson Scholarship fund in their will.
