7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

But I say to you,
love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute
you, that you may be children of your heavenly Father, for he makes his sun rise
on the bad and
the good, and
causes rain to fall
on the just and the unjust.

Matthew
5:44-45

Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I: Leviticus 19: 1-2,17-18
Reading II: 1 Corinthians 3:16-23
Gospel: Matthew 5:38-48

The first sentence of the reading from Leviticus and the last sentence from the Gospel offer a striking parallel: Be holy as God is holy; be perfect as your Father is perfect. This is the context in which we should hear Jesus' words in the Gospel. By human standards, what he asks is indeed foolish. But his call is to abandon our human perspective and to take on the perspective as God loves—"for his sun rises on the bad and the good." Not only may this call seem foolish to us, but it may also seem impossible. Who can love like this? We might remember Jesus' words to his disciples when they were shocked by another one of his teachings: "Nothing is impossible with God." We are called not only to love as God loves, but to love with God's love. Paul reminds us that we are holy because the Spirit of God already dwells within us. It is the Spirit, the love of God dwelling within us, that enables us to follow the call of Jesus.

Sponsor of the Week

Matthew's Gospel invites us all to inherit the kingdom prepared for us. Our acceptance of Jesus' invitation is evidenced by our seeing Christ in others. "For I was hungry and you gave me food. I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, in prison and you visited me." Members of St. Vincent de Paul Society embrace all works of charity and justice. Our visits to those in need is a prayer response to Jesus' invitation to each of us to inherit the kingdom here and now.

Our success is a direct correlation to the generous support of our St. Thomas family in both food and financial support. Our monthly financial appeal will be next weekend, March 1/2, at all six Sunday Masses. Thank you to all our parishioners for your generosity. Without your contributions we would not be able to help provide food for our pantry, or make our home visits. There is an acute need for new volunteers to help with a couple of hours of their time in either the pantry or on home visits. Please consider joining us.
