CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

FAITH KNOWLEDGE
DISCIPLINE MORALS

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I: Jonah 3: 1-5,10
Reading II: 1 Corinthians 7:29-31
Gospel: Mark 1:14-20

Making a decision at one time in our lives doesn't always mean that the case is comfortably closed. Sometimes we have second thoughts about what we are doing. Sometimes we hesitate, waver. Sometimes we need to affirm a choice we have already made. So it is with the call to holiness. It may be that we are eager for holiness but reluctant to pay the price of discipleship. For others, or at another time in our lives, we may just want to maintain the status quo, being unwilling or unable to invest the energy and time that changes require. We may go through times of wanting to let go of an already made commitment. Our sense of what is important may change. We may simply get tired of trying. There is a cost in discipleship. When we decide to follow Jesus, we are eager at first. Then we may waver. Deepening the commitment (call) may take us to another level. What is consistent in all of this is following Jesus.

Overcome the Obstacles Holding You Back

Engaging the Struggles of Your Heart, the second series of Walking Toward Eternity, is a challenging study that can open our eyes to obstacles in our Christian walk, obstacles such as fear, loneliness, envy and shame. Through prayer, reflection and guidance of the Holy Spirit, we can begin to engage these difficulties in a positive way as we continue our goal of union with Christ.

An 8 week study beginning February 5 will meet on Thursdays during the Lenten season from 7:00-9:00 pm in the lower level of the church. Sign up January 24/25 and January 31/Feb. 1. Call Deacon Mark Kelsch at 692-4908.

January 24, 2015
 Feast of St. Francis de Sales
 Patron of Journalists

Dear Clergy, Religious and Laity of the Diocese of Peoria,

As Catholics, we are members of a large and loving family of faith. In this diocese, we have inspirational Catholic brothers and sisters in Rock Island, Macomb, LaSalle, Danville, and all points in between. These members of our spiritual family have much to offer through their words and example.

But how do we become aware of Catholics beyond our parishes and communities, let alone stay connected and united?

The thousands who receive and support The Catholic Post know the answer. These informed Catholics are regularly introduced to their extended family of faith through the stories and photos in our excellent diocesan newspaper and its many digital outreaches.

The Catholic Post is now conducting its 2015 Delivering Unity Campaign on the theme "Get to Know Your Family of Faith." I urge all Catholic households to support and use this valuable resource that unites, informs, and inspires us as the Body of Christ in central Illinois. More information will appear in the February 1 issue, which will be sent to every home in the diocese.

While a $29 subscription will benefit your household throughout the coming year, support of The Catholic Post is also a practical way to evangelize. I suggest that parents and grandparents consider sending the newspaper to younger family members to help them live their faith in today's culture.

Thanking you for your support and assuring you of my prayers, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Rev. Daniel R. Jenky, C.S.C.
 Bishop of Peoria

Sponsor of the Week

Members of St. Vincent de Paul Society are called Vincentians. We Vincentians are blessed with the understanding that we can share our gifts (treasure, time or talent) with those in need. We visit folks in their home and try to offer support. That may be referrals, money, food or moral support.

We visited a young couple with an infant. They were not looking for financial support. The wife was very depressed and suicidal after giving birth to their daughter. She was unable to work. The husband was working two jobs but was concerned about leaving his wife alone. He was seeking a job where he would have normal hours. They were trying to figure out their finances since they were missing her income. They just wanted someone to talk to. We sat and listened to their story. We gave referrals for psychiatric counseling and assured them they were doing all they could in their situation. We said a prayer with them. We suggested they call us if they needed further assistance. We did follow up to make sure she was able to see a counselor.

A few months later they did call. They asked if we could help pay for a college course that would help him secure a better paying job. Thanks to the generosity of you, the members of St. Thomas Church, we were able to do just that.

Without the continued support of you we would not be able to spread Christ's message to those in need. Thank you for your generosity. You are in our prayers.

We are always looking for others to join our wonderful group. Please give it some thought.

Watch for us at the Social Justice Weekend February 28/March 1 in the lower level of the church after all the Masses. More Information will be available.
