Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham.

For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

Luke 19:9-10

Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I: Wisdom 11:22-12:2
Reading II: 2 Thessalonians 1:11—2:2
Gospel: Luke 19: 1-10

The story in today's Gospel is familiar to many of us. It is the story of Zacchaeus, the tax collector, who climbed up a tree to catch a glimpse of Jesus as he was travelling into Jericho. The importance of his public office and his reputation with the people mattered little as this man scurried up the tree. In his desire to get a good look at Jesus, to see him clearly, he forgot everything. How surprised he must have been when Jesus stopped beneath that tree and called up to him, personally. Not only had he seen Jesus, but more importantly Jesus had seen and spoken to him. How often we are caught off guard when we encounter Christ in the events of our daily life. Sometimes we totally miss his presence. This familiar story ends as Jesus has visited Zacchaeus' home and eaten with him. Zacchaeus is a changed man as he offers to make reparation for those whom he has cheated. Salvation has come to Zacchaeus' house. He was once unable to see Christ clearly; now his vision is restored. He is a new creation.

The Heading Avenue Franciscans will be selling the Rolan Johnson Christmas ornaments after the Masses on November 2/3. The sessions for RCIA—for anyone interested in joining the Catholic Church—began Wednesday, October 2 at 7:00 pm in the school library. Let us know if you are aware of anyone who might have an interest. Call Sr. Rachel at 688-3446.

The program has two dimensions: 1) for adults interested in exploring the Catholic Church; 2) for children, beginning at age 6 who have not been baptized or catechized in their grade school years.

Some of the candidates in the R.C.I.A. are in need of a sponsor. If you would be willing to walk with someone through the weekly meetings to support him or her in this discernment and study, please call Sr. Rachel, 688-3446.

Wedding Congratulations

Notes:

Combined operating expenses over revenue show a $63,000 loss for the current quarter. Church revenue is down by $27,000 but Parish expenses are also under budget by $37,000 netting a $10,000 favorable position compared to the budget for the Parish for this quarter. The school has recorded $14,000 more revenue than budgeted and $21,000 less expenses to net to a $36,000 favorable position compared to budget. The non-operating revenue was mostly over budget due to continued donations to the air conditioning project.

The Finance Committee and Parish Council are continuing to identify areas within the Parish where operational efficiency and cost control may be improved. Evaluation of the Parish investment practices and banking services are continuing as well as more cost cutting issues related to envelopes and other expense related areas.

We appreciate the continued generosity of our parishioners, the dedicated work of our volunteers, and the staff attention to controlling costs. We would like to encourage parishioners to prayerfully consider increasing their donations, not just to help us cover our bills, but out of the generosity of what God has given each of us. Many thanks and blessings to all of you for your sacrifice and support of St. Thomas.
