CHRIST THE KING

*"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God,
"the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty." Revelation 1:8*

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Reading I: Daniel 7:13-14
Reading II: Revelation 1: 5-8
Gospel: John 18:33b-37

"My kingdom does not belong to this world." Both the first and second readings tell about the broad reaches of God's kingdom. How difficult it was for the people of Jesus' time to see and understand what Jesus was professing and inviting people to join. The idea of a ruler who serves was as foreign then as it is now. Jesus' kingdom still does not belong to this world. Instead we are called to move from worldly ways and values into God's way. Because we live in this world as much as Daniel or Pilate or John, we have a limited understanding of what exactly God's reign looks like. However, our entrance is through Jesus. Whoever is committed to knowing the truth hears Jesus and follows his ways of love and service to others.

Second Chances

This past year, a new group called Second Chances was formed at St. Thomas. This group continues the work of Project Return, that is, working with women who have recently been released from prison. We are in partnership with Southside Mission as they often house ex-prisoners. Currently, we assist Shirley who is living at the mission and making great strides towards becoming a productive citizen. Shirley has found and retained a job for many months now. In addition, she has just completed culinary training and job skills training at Southside Mission. We are so proud of her efforts. So many challenges face those who have been incarcerated. Shirley is meeting those challenges. Our Second Chances group is seeking more parishioners to work with women like Shirley. Christ came and announced "glad tidings...release to prisoners." Would you consider being a part of Christ's call? Please contact Jack Kinney at 692-1447 if you have an interest in joining us or if you can help in any way.

As we begin Advent we are called to "await" in joyful anticipation for the grace of Christmas to once again bless our lives. Wherever you live in our parish, there are poor and hungry families within walking distance of your home. St. Vincent de Paul supports the food pantry and this is a tough time for society as we help those in need with rent, utilities, and food. Your gift in the St. Vincent de Paul Collection next Sunday will help the poor celebrate the grace of God's love this Christmas. Thank you so much for your generous giving.

Dear Friends in Christ,

Right now, many American families are struggling to make ends meet. As people are laid off, lose homes to foreclosure, the rising cost of health insurance, and watching retirement funds disappear; it may be difficult to think of others in need. However, financial struggles have become even harder for the 46.2 million Americans who have been living in poverty.

For over 40 years, the Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) has come to the aid of organizations nationwide in an effort to eradicate poverty in America. Just as the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us that "the Church's love for the poor...is a part of her constant tradition." (no. 2444), it is also the tradition of CCHD to love the poor by helping to end the cycle of poverty.

Through CCHD the Catholic Church is working to continue its tradition of love for the poor. Please help the efforts of CCHD to break the cycle of poverty. Fight poverty in America. Defend human dignity. Support CCHD in the upcoming Collection. 25% of the Collection's proceeds stay in our diocese.

Bishop Daniel R. Jenky C.S.C.

Preparing for Advent

The season of ADVENT has traditionally been a wonderful time for family activities in the home. In these days when being at home as a family is a precious and sometimes rare experience, we encourage you to make the most of the season of ADVENT. There are suggested opportunities to bring joy as well as teach children the importance of waiting for Jesus to arrive in your family again this Christmas by learning about our common stories of faith as well as experiencing the symbolism of this season.

ADVENT IN THE HOME

Perhaps the most popular tradition in the home during Advent is the Advent Wreath. The Advent wreath reflects the spirit of expectation. The four candles, one more lit each week, helps us in our anticipation of the great event of Christmas, Christ's coming. This custom originated in ancient times with the festival of lighting of fire as the days shortened. It was "christianized" in Europe and has taken on religious significance.

The Advent Wreath, which can be of any size, is circular and made of evergreens, and is placed on a table in the home. There are four candles, one for each week of Advent. Three of the candles are purple, one is pink, the traditional color of the Third Sunday of Advent. A prayer is prayed by the family members and a candle is lit each day—one the first week, etc. Light increases, pushing out darkness. The basic symbolism of the Advent Wreath represents the tension between light and darkness. It represents the long time when people lived in spiritual darkness, waiting for the coming of the Messiah, the light of the world. Each year in Advent we wait in darkness for the coming of the Lord, the anniversary of Christ's birth and His coming into our hearts again

PRAYER: Bless this Advent Wreath and our family as we prepare during this beautiful season for Christ's coming into our lives more deeply. Amen.

ADVENT ANGELS

A great family favorite is the Advent Angel tradition. Put the names of each member of the family in a container and have each person draw a name. Don't tell anyone whose name you have. During Advent do something special for that person periodically (like make their bed or put candy on their pillow). Remember the person is not to find out who you are until Christmas when you have a special gift for him/her. It is fun to make a gift.

ST. NICHOLAS DAY

Children love this tradition. Put your shoe outside the bedroom door the night before (December 5) the feast of St. Nicholas which is DECEMBER 6. Tradition has it that if you have been good throughout the year, your shoe will be filled with goodies. On the other hand, if you have not been good, you might find coal or sticks in your shoe. We hope St. Nicholas visits you!!

STRAW IN THE CRIB

This is a good activity for children. Place your empty crib somewhere for the children to see. Each day place a piece of straw or yarn in the crib for a good deed done that day. On Christmas Day, add the figure of Jesus to the filled crib.
