From the Pastor

There is a Holy Day of Obligation this week as we celebrate the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Please make plans to attend Mass Tuesday evening or Wednesday.

As we announced last week, the parish website, stthomaspeoria.org, has been updated with a more current appearance, but also with more accurate and helpful information. Thanks to those who caught a few corrections. The website, as well as the parish app, are useful tools to communicate with you and keep you informed of activities at St. Thomas. Your feedback is welcome as we continue to improve these resources.

Additional photos of parish activities would be a helpful addition to our parish website. If you have some good photos to share, please let us know. We can make use of some additional photos to personalize the parish website.

Next week, we look forward to welcoming the children back to St. Thomas School. We have been busy over the summer and now look forward to a very good year ahead. Please also see the notes about CCD which will begin after Labor Day (September 5), and RCIA which will start in mid-September (September 19). We look forward to a new year of growing in our faith, for our children and for adults alike.

-Msgr. Gray

Bread of Life Readings

Over the past two weeks, we have considered the importance of coming to Sunday Mass, as well as the benefit of making time even for Daily Masses during the week. This week, we consider Holy Days of Obligation. While we are used to the routines of coming to Mass on the weekend, there are a handful of days for which participation at Mass is also required for all Catholics.

In the United States, the Holy Days of Obligation are Mary, Mother of God on January 1, Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary on August 15, All Saints on November 1, Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary on December 8, and the Nativity of Our Lord (Christmas) on December 25. In some places, the Ascension of Our Lord is observed on Ascension Thursday. In the State of Illinois/Province of Chicago, the Ascension is transferred to Sunday.

Some Holy Days of Obligation are dispensed when they fall on a Monday or a Saturday because of the close proximity to Sunday. In the United States, note that December 8 and December 25 are not dispensed on Mondays and Saturdays. In fact, later this year, we will observe the Holy Day for the Immaculate Conception on Saturday, December 8.

These Holy Days remind us of some of the most important mysteries of our Faith. By taking time out of our busy week to celebrate these Holy Days, we allow the Lord to consecrate our time, by raising our minds in prayer from worldly to spiritual realities. Participating in the Eucharist nourishes us on these special days as we are fed by the Word of God and the Body of Christ.

Take time to celebrate these days, since we have these feast days to remind us of the great blessings that God has given us. As we might all remember to celebrate the birthday or anniversary of an important loved one, we remember these Holy Days as important moments in the lives of our spiritual family. In these sacred celebrations, we rejoice with Our Lord and the Blessed Mother.

In our parish, we also observe special solemnities on the Feast of St. Thomas (July 3) and the Anniversary of the Dedication of our Parish Church (October 6). These are not Holy Days of Obligation, but they are special moments for us as a local parish community. You may have your own feast days to celebrate if you were named after a saint, or if you have a special devotion to a particular saint. Let us all use these feast days to remind us of our calling to holiness and our destiny to join with all the angels and saints in Heaven.

Pray With the Pope for His Intentions

August 2018 ~ The Treasure of Families

That any far-reaching decisions of economists and politicians may protect the family as one of the treasures of humanity.
-Pope Francis

Each year, the Holy Father asks us to pray for a specific intention every month. The Holy Father has entrusted these intentions in a particular way to the Apostleship of Prayer, an organization working to encourage Christians to respond to the Pope, and to deepen their daily prayer. You will find more information about the Apostleship of Prayer at <http://popesprayerusa.net/>.

Here at St. Thomas, we will include these intentions during each month, so we can unite as the Universal Church, in prayer.

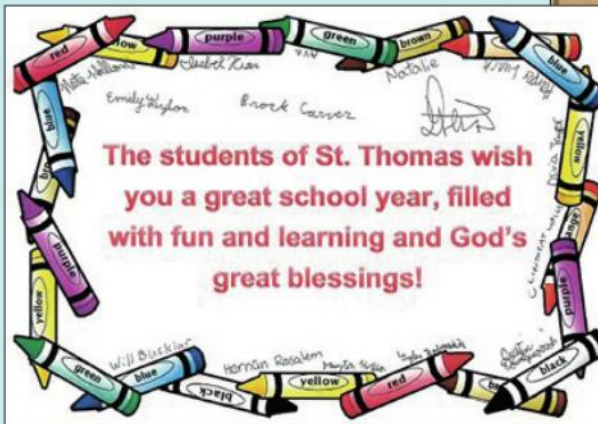

When coming to our school, you will now be greeted at the new service window in the school office. This is just one of the improvements made this summer to enhance our security.

Backpack Giveaway 2018

A huge Thank YOU to all of you who helped with the backpack distribution – donating filled backpacks, or supplies, or money, or toothbrushes – volunteering; both adults and 8th graders, to play games, educate parents, give out backpacks, shop, “pack the packs”, register the families, take pictures... the list goes on and on.

Diocesan Children's Choir

Are you looking for a place where your child can sing with other children their age? Please consider joining the Diocese of Peoria Chapter of Pueri Cantores. Pueri Cantores is an international music organization for children of the Catholic Church grades 4-12.

We also have established a preparatory choir, The Little Cherubs, for children K-3. Children in Pueri Cantores will have the opportunity to represent the Diocese at the Chicago festival in February.

Please email st.marychildrenchoir@gmail.com and join us for an informational meeting on August 9th at 6:00 pm in the Parish Hall at Sacred Heart Church.

Get your groove on at the 60's themed private screening movie event on September 22nd In honor of the 50th anniversary of Humanae Vitae and the upcoming canonization of Pope Paul VI

Springtime Productions presents
SEXUAL REVOLUTION
50 YEARS SINCE HUMANAЕ VITAE

$10 is all the bread you'll need to enjoy an evening of music, drinks, snacks and fun!

So dust off your bell bottoms, throw on some love beads and join me in welcoming Alana Newman, the centerpiece of this film along with director, Daniel diSilva.

Alana was a talented secular musician who gave up her entire music career for life, family and love. She was donor conceived and shares how through desperation to know her father, she discovers the treasures of Humanae Vitae, Theology of the Body and the riches of true freedom through a dramatic conversion.

The documentary closely examines the history of the parallel developments of the Pill and Natural Family Planning by telling the little-known story of the founding doctors. 90 minutes run time

We can jam with Alana afterwards and you can browse the outa sight information presented by OSF Women's Health and FertilityCare, Baby Boot Camp, OSF Centers for Breath Health and childbirth education.

So be there or be square! Spread the word, bring a date, amp up your flower power and contact me for your reservations!
