

Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. For I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or the smallest part of a letter will pass from the law, until all things have taken place. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the Kingdom of heaven. But whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the Kingdom of heaven. Whoever neglects to do these things, who professes to be a Christian, will be cast into the Kingdom of hell.

6TH SUNDAY in Ordinary Time

"Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets.
I have come not to abolish but to fulfill."

We are approaching the season of Lent at the end of the month. Next week we will have additional reminders about Ash Wednesday and the normal Lenten regulations regarding fast and abstinence.

There are a few other observances during Lent that deserve some special attention. I urge everyone to consider the following additional devotional practices during this holy season.

We will offer an evening daily Mass at 5:30 pm. This Mass is in addition to the regular 7 and 8 am Masses offered on weekdays. Daily Mass is an excellent practice for consecrating the season of Lent each day and not only on the Lord's Day. Make the commitment to attend this half-hour daily Mass at least some during Lent.

We continue to have our monthly Holy Hour for our parish. This time of Eucharistic Adoration is a focused time for us to spend in prayer before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. I encourage you to come to pray for our parish, for greater devotion to the Eucharist, and for vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life. For February, our Holy Hour will be on Thursday, February 27, the day after Ash Wednesday. It will be held at 6 pm, immediately after the 5:30 pm evening Mass on that day.

We will offer Stations of the Cross on the Fridays of Lent. There will be confessions and adoration on Friday evenings at 6 pm, followed by the Stations and benediction at 7 pm. This can be a special spiritual commitment on a Friday evening, when our society wants to celebrate the end of the week. For us, the Fridays of lent are a reminder of Jesus' offering on the cross on Good Friday. Let us spiritually walk with Jesus who carried his cross for our salvation and the salvation of the world.
