20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.”

From Our Pastor

This weekend we recall the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, celebrated on Saturday, August 15th. Because it falls on a Saturday, it is not a Holy Day of Obligation this year, but let us use this time to ask the Blessed Mother to watch over us. We ask for Mary's protection for St. Thomas Parish and St. Thomas School at the beginning of this new year.

We look forward to reopening this week for in-person instruction for our children. There are numerous precautions and adjustments that we have made to provide greater safety for the health of our students and their families. At the same time, we should be encouraged by the example of schools in other countries and by scientific evidence that shows that children have the lowest risk of ill health from Corona and are least likely to transmit an infection to others.

I am so personally proud of our faculty and staff who have gone above and beyond in providing excellence in education last spring. I have heard great praise for the e-learning work that was provided to our students. I know that our faculty is ready to face the challenges of a new school year. Please pray for them and encourage them, since our faculty and staff are truly heroic in their commitment to our young people.

I am glad that we are prepared for in-person instruction this fall, since even the best technology is no substitute for the learning that takes place in a classroom. We have contingency plans if we need to fall back to on-line instruction, but we want to emphasize the importance of quality interaction between the teacher and the student. I am worried that the intellectual growth of our students will suffer if they are not challenged.

Similarly, each of our spiritual lives can begin to atrophy if we are not challenged to practice our faith. It is easy to get comfortable in a pattern of not attending Mass. Many have told me how "Mass online" just isn't the same – and that is true! I encourage everyone who is healthy, safe, and ready to begin returning to Mass. For those who cannot yet return, I encourage you to make your spiritual sacrifices, and a life of prayer a true priority, especially on the Lord's Day.

-Msgr. Gray

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Order of the symbols in the sanctuary

The depictions of the virtues are organized primarily around the theological virtues and the symbol of martyrdom. These images are set within a gold background to distinguish them from the reddish background of the other symbols. Beginning in the lower left, there is the cross of faith, the anchor of hope, the heart of charity, as well as the cross and palms for martyrdom.

In between the theological virtues on both the left and the right are the cardinal virtues (the mirror of prudence, the scales of justice, the tower of fortitude, the basin and ewer of temperance). At the bottom and the top are the Evangelical Counsels (the turtledoves of poverty, the lily of chastity, the commandments of obedience) and the lily of the valley of humility.

Beginning in the lower left, the virtue of faith is associated with poverty, since the freedom to sacrifice worldly possessions for Heavenly treasures can only be made by one who believes. Faith is also connected with prudence, since faith is necessary to help us discern what is prudently right. Prudence relates to justice, since our knowledge of what is the right course of action helps us to justly render to each person what is owed to them. Justice leads to charity, which strives to go beyond what is strictly required by justice to give generously for love of God and neighbor. Charity is connected with obedience, as Jesus asked us to obey a new commandment, to love one another. Obedience is set on top as obeying God's law is a supreme good: "Thy will be done."

Continuing on the right, the virtue of humility is on top as the crowning virtue of the saints who practice childlike simplicity and trust in God. Humility is modeled in martyrdom, since the martyr humbly lays down his or her life in witness to God. The strength of the martyr shows the virtue of fortitude which is necessary for one to surrender his or her life. The sacrificial spirit of the martyr and the strength of fortitude are necessary to practice self-denial through temperance, or moderation in the use of worldly goods. Temperance is connected with hope, since one who practices moderation also trusts that the promises of the Lord will be fulfilled. Hope is filled with trust and longing for the Kingdom of God, which is essential to chastity, which Our Lord describes as a sign of the Kingdom.

Children's Religious Education

Religious Education serves children in grades 1 through 8 who attend St. Thomas Parish, but do not attend the school.

At this time we have not yet set a plan in place for in-person instruction; however, be assured that your child(ren) will receive religious education despite the obstacles facing all of us due to COVID. Please follow the church bulletin for more details, and start up information.

Classes are held on Wednesday evenings from 6:00-7:00 p.m., and we are hoping to start at the end of September or beginning of October.

Contact Angie Robenstein at 309-645-1364, or 309-685-2533, for registration materials to be sent to you, as plans progress.

For those not yet ready to come back to Mass

We will continue to have Communion available outside of Mass on Sunday from 12:00 to 12:30 pm. Come into the narthex, or pull up in the crescent drive to receive.

We will continue to record Mass and post the recordings on YouTube. See the parish website stthomaspeoria.org for a link to the channel.
