From Our Pastor

There are several items to bring up as we go through Lent:

First, we have been scheduling our school and CCD students for confession during Lent. This is a good reminder for all of us that we should benefit from this sacrament during Lent to prepare for Easter. It is a wonderful sacrament since it sets us free from the burden of our sins and brings us great peace. If it's been a while, please plan to make a good confession. We have confession times on Fridays and Saturdays during Lent.

Second, please come to the Men's Club Fish Fry, Friday evening, March 19. Tickets can be purchased in advance online through our website. Please purchase tickets ahead of time to insure that we have enough fish for all who want to attend. You can dine in or pick up curbside if you want to take the dinner home to eat. Thanks to the Men's Club for this excellent fish dinner! Visit <https://stthomaspeoria.org/product/st-thomas-fish-fry/> Third, we will have a presentation of the history of the Church in our RCIA class on Wednesday evening, March 17, at 7 pm in the Parish Hall. If you're interested in this topic, feel free to join us. The presentation will also be recorded and posted online.

Finally, thanks to everyone who has donated to our sanctuary renovation and to new mosaic Stations of the Cross. As they were installed this week, they are a wonderful addition to our church. Join us on Friday evenings at 7 pm to pray the Stations of the Cross.

-Msgr. Gray

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Behold, I stand at the door and knock.
—Rev 3:20

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Soon our diocese will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection. Your support of this collection serves Jesus in the guise of the poor and vulnerable in some of the most marginalized communities in our world.

Sailors, fishers, harbor workers, and their families have unique pastoral needs because of mariners' long periods away from home. In addition to access to the Mass and sacraments on ships, seafarers also need hospitality and pastoral care in port cities as well as assistance with errands such as shopping and medical appointments. For the past hundred years, Stella Maris—also called Apostleship of the Sea—has ministered to the pastoral needs of mariners through chaplaincies and centers in port cities. This apostleship currently serves the community with more than 100 chaplains and lay ministers in 48 ports across the United States.

In November 2019, 21 bishops, 11 apostleship chaplains, and lay ministers and staff from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Subcommittee on Pastoral Care of Migrants, Refugees, and Travelers (PCMRT) gathered to discuss the experiences and challenges of chaplains and how best to take on the challenges of maritime ministry. They invited bishops to engage in efforts to raise awareness of the Apostleship of the Sea in their own dioceses. By gathering chaplains with bishops, the apostleship can address challenges in the maritime world and continue to meet the needs of mariners.

Apostleship of the Sea is one of the PCMRT ministries funded through The Catholic Relief Services Collection. When you give, you help to support this valuable ministry.

Your support of this collection makes a difference for so many around the globe. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the collection this year. To learn more about the collection and the people who benefit, please visit www.usccb.org/catholic-relief.

Thank you for your generous support of The Catholic Relief Services Collection.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Daniel R. Jenky, C.S.C.

When you go the poor, you encounter Jesus

I started my involvement with the St. Thomas Saint Vincent DePaul group several years ago when, prompted by the Holy Spirit I suppose, I wandered through the church basement volunteer organizations fair after Mass one Sunday. An engaging and kind gentleman explained to me what the group does, and that they were in need of more helpers. That has day has turned out to be one of those times in my life that has most certainly helped to grow my faith, for many reasons. I have received much more than I have given.

The St. Thomas chapter of the St. Vincent DePaul Society is a prayerful, dedicated, kind, and beautiful group of folks who are living out the message of Christ by serving the poor, especially by making visits to them, meeting them where they are (in every sense). The money we receive from our generous parishioners allows this CONNECTION to be possible. COVID has limited our home visits, which has been difficult, but we have soldiered on, and are hoping to be able to resume soon, because it is the CONTACT that makes this mission such a powerful way to respond to Christ's words "Whatsoever you do to the least of my people, you do to Me".

My own faith was "turned up a notch", by working and learning with this group. They helped me to CONNECT with the poor in my own community. I have had to make a conscious effort to open my heart and mind in order to understand, love, and HELP (in many and creative ways). It's really something. And it is happening on a daily basis thanks to the donations that miraculously continue to be trusted to us. We are ever grateful.

Food Pantry Spring Clean Up

It's almost spring, and that means it's almost time for SPRING CLEANING!

During the months of March and April, the food pantry is asking for donations of cleaning supplies so our clients can get a jump on the grit and grime. Suggestions include window cleaner, dish soap, laundry detergent, fabric softener, bowl cleaner, all purpose cleaners, mops, brooms/dustpans and rags.

Donations can be left in the food pantry donation box in the narthex.

Thank you for brightening lives
by helping our clients freshen up their homes!
