Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"And I tell you, ask and you will receive;
seek and you will find;
knock and the door will be opened to you."

Luke 11:9

From Our Pastor

Earlier in July, we celebrated our patron, St. Thomas, and my ordination anniversary which was on July 12. The rest of July is not as busy with activities, although the new school year is right around the corner.

One fun event this week will be a run/walk at Donovan Park on Wednesday evening beginning at 6:30 pm. Since I try to walk and exercise regularly, I invite you to join me for this evening for your health. There will be refreshments afterwards.

One ongoing activity at the parish is the care for the shut-ins and the dying. I am grateful to the extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion who help bring the Eucharist to those who are not able to attend Mass. I visit as many of the shut-ins as I can on First Fridays according to my schedule. If you know of someone who is ill or physically unable to attend Mass, and especially if you know someone who is dying, please contact the office so we can arrange a visit. We depend on your help to know when a parishioner is in need.

Recently we have also received various requests about baptism. The pandemic may have led to delaying baptism for some children. In any case, if you know someone who has not been baptized, this would be a good time to provide for this life-giving sacrament. If parishioners are presenting their first child for baptism, we ask the parents to take a short baptism class to review their responsibilities. If the child is under the age of 7, we can arrange the baptism at any convenient time. For those who are older, we arrange some catechesis to instruct the child about the faith before admitting him or her to the sacraments, probably around the Easter Vigil.

For any adults who are interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith, we will begin RCIA classes for catechesis in September. You might consider planting the seed now, for anyone who should think about beginning the process, to become Catholic in the fall.

- Msgr. Gray

Congratulations PND AP Capstone Students

100% of PND students who took the AP Capstone exams in the spring performed at a college level! In addition, the mean of the scores for PND Seminar students was 3.90 out of 5 compared to Illinois students' mean score of 3.09. PND Research students scored a mean of 4.23 which is almost an entire point more than Illinois students at 3.4.

AP Capstone is designed to help high school students prepare for college level research, composition, and presentation. Congratulations to PND AP Capstone students and graduates!

Catholic Author Meet and Greet

St. Philomena Catholic Church is excited to host an opportunity for readers of all ages to stock up on good books and meet the authors and illustrators who have created them.

On Thursday, July 28 from 10am-12pm in the St. Philomena Parish Center, 1000 W Albany, Peoria.

We will offer an open-house style event featuring fourteen local Catholic authors. Each will have books for sale and will be available for signings and photos. Throughout the morning, the authors will offer readings, story time, and Q&A about their books. Kids activities for little budding authors and illustrators will be set up, and a used book swap will be available to all. The event is open to the public and free to attend. For a complete list of authors and their books, go to www.stphils.com/church.
