Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Our Pastor

With the help of the Franciscan Sisters of St. John the Baptist, the Anima Christi prayer has been added to the back inside cover of the Music Issue Books. This prayer, meaning Soul of Christ, is a great prayer in honor of the Eucharist.

Fr. Stark used to introduce different prayers or traditions to help us appreciate different dimensions of our Catholic Faith. I will begin reciting the Anima Christi after Communion as a way for us to enter into the Eucharistic Renewal called for by our Bishops.

Please remember that you are also encouraged to come to pray before the Blessed Sacrament, even for five minutes at different times during the week. Since we are privileged to be able to have our church open frequently during the day, it is easy for us to make a visit for prayer before the Tabernacle.

Thanks to Deacon Mallow, our bookstand in the narthex has been renewed. In place of CDs, we have a greater variety of books for purchase, especially focused on the Eucharist. Check the titles to see if one of them is of interest to you.

OCIA class for new Catholics or those who want to learn more about the Catholic Faith begins this Wednesday, September 6, at 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall. I have composed some questions to start class discussion. See if you are able to answer these questions and test your own knowledge of the Faith.

Have a happy Labor Day weekend. We will resume our monthly donut Sundays beginning next weekend.

- Msgr. Gray

Why do we bring gifts up during the Offertory?

The parts of the Mass often have both a historical and a theological meaning.

Historically, early Christians would bring bread and wine from home to be consecrated at mass. They were offering the work of human hands back to the Father. This symbolized cooperation between God and humans in the creation of the bread and wine.

Theologically, we are offering ourselves on the altar, united with the sacrifice of Jesus. Why? The short answer is sin. We've all damaged our relationship with God and the Mass is the process of Christ reuniting us with the Father. St. Paul tells us that, For our sake he made him to be sin who did not know sin, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him. (2 Corinthians 5:21) Jesus sacrificed himself, opening the gates of heaven to us by his death and resurrection. We remember this by offering ourselves and our prayers to God the Father at Mass.

We would like to invite our parishioners and school families to begin bringing the gifts at the 10:00 am Sunday Masses this month! Please scan the QR code to sign up or call the parish office.

Ready to Bring the Love of Jesus

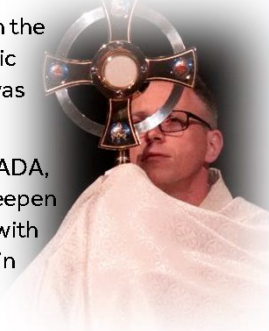

2023 ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

Did you know that ADA supports Eucharistic Revival?

Over 1,600 high school students encountered Jesus in the Eucharist in a special way at the High School Eucharistic Conference this spring. Maybe your son or daughter was one of them.

When you give to ADA, you help others deepen their relationship with Eucharistic Jesus in many ways.

www.cdop.org/ada

When you go to the poor, you encounter Jesus

Recently, I was shopping at my local pharmacy. I stopped in to pick up a small toiletry item. As I wandered the aisles, I began noticing the price tags on the shelves looked different. Hmm, what had happened? Then it became clear. Where I was used to seeing 3 digits, a dollar and cents on the sign, now the signs were crowded because there were often 2 digits for the dollar amount. Something that a few months ago cost $7.99 for instance, now may cost $12.99. One of the least expensive men's deodorants costs about $5 – and if you have teenage boys . . . ??

What became clear to this casual shopper is that inflation has really had an effect on routine household items. I got to thinking about the callers to our help line. How much of an effect is this having on their family budgets? How can they plan for increasing utility bills and rent payments with inflation at the pharmacy and food store slapping them in the pocketbook? The typical family we help has not seen an increase in their income that matches the higher costs. Often for these reasons they live even closer to the edge. It doesn't take much to create a big need. This time of year, many of our friends are preparing for their children to return to school. This often means new school supplies, new clothes and shoes. Surely today's prices are much higher than last year due to inflation. These pressures sometimes lead to sleepless nights and desperate choices. When they call St. Vincent de Paul Society they are often out of resources. Thank you again for sharing your resources with us so we can be of help to them. May God Bless you.

This month we are happy to welcome 3 new members to our group. Perhaps you have thought about joining us in the past. Maybe now is a good time to reconsider. If you are interested, call Nancy Medendorp, 309-678-4504. She would be happy to share our goal and mission, and answer any of your questions. Pray about it.
