Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

WHERE TWO OR THREE
GATHER IN MY NAME,

I am there among them

© Diocesan

From Our Pastor

This weekend we return to our regular traditions during the school year, including Donut Sunday. Each month some of our grade school students help with our 10:00 a.m. Mass. Let us look forward to be more closely united as a St. Thomas Family, both our parish and school. Donuts will be served after Sunday morning Masses.

This weekend we also invite you to pledge to support our Diocese through the Annual Diocesan Appeal. The video for this year's ADA is found online: <https://cdop.org/offices/development-stewardship/ada/>. I will reflect on the programs supported by this diocesan collection during the homily. If you've contributed in the past, you should have received information about contributing in the mail. Pledge cards for the Annual Diocesan Appeal will also be available at Mass. Online contributions can also be made at the link above.

Last year we exceeded our goal and received a rebate of approximately $10,000 from the ADA. Thank you for your past support and your generosity.

Since I was appointed as Executive Director of the Fulton Sheen Foundation, I have accepted invitations to speak on Archbishop Sheen. In addition to the talks I gave as part of our St. Thomas Book Club, I was grateful to appear on Raymond Arroyo's program on EWTN and Drew Mariani's program on Relevant Radio. This Thursday, September 14, I have been invited by the El Paso Historical Society to speak at St. Mary Parish, El Paso, at 7:00 p.m. on Archbishop Sheen's lasting legacy. Anyone is welcome to attend.

Since we restored daily Masses at both 7:00 and 8:00 a.m., we have extra openings for Mass intentions. If you would like Masses offered for loved ones, living or deceased, please contact the parish office to make your request.

As part of our Eucharistic Devotion, we will continue to recite the Anima Christi prayer. For your convenience, it has been inserted in the back of the Music Issue, or you can read it on page 3.

- Msgr. Gray

Why do we bring gifts up during the Offertory?

The parts of the Mass often have both a historical and a theological meaning.

Historically, early Christians would bring bread and wine from home to be consecrated at mass. They were offering the work of human hands back to the Father. This symbolized cooperation between God and humans in the creation of the bread and wine.

Theologically, we are offering ourselves on the altar, united with the sacrifice of Jesus. Why? The short answer is sin. We've all damaged our relationship with God and the Mass is the process of Christ reuniting us with the Father. St. Paul tells us that, For our sake he made him to be sin who did not know sin, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him. (2 Corinthians 5:21) Jesus sacrificed himself, opening the gates of heaven to us by his death and resurrection. We remember this by offering ourselves and our prayers to God the Father at Mass.

We would like to invite our parishioners and school families to begin bringing the gifts at the 10:00 am Sunday Masses this month! Please scan the QR code to sign up or call the parish office.

Ready to Bring the Love of Jesus

2023 ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

Did you know that ADA supports Evangelization?

In 22 parishes of our Diocese, over 1,600 young people were learning about their faith while having a lot of fun this summer. Totus Tuus summer program helped them to understand and grow in their faith in Jesus Christ through catechesis, evangelization, Christian witness and Eucharistic worship. This program, which is coordinated through the Office of Vocations, is made available to your parish with the support of ADA.

Give online at www.cdop.org/ada.

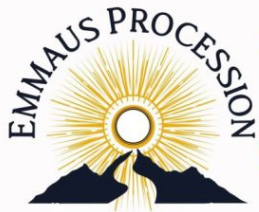

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds, hide me.
Let me never be separated from you.
From the evil enemy, defend me.
In the hour of my death, call me,
And bid me come to you,
That with your saints I may praise you
Forever and ever. Amen.

Women of the Word

All women of the Parish are invited to join Women of the Word which incorporates Scripture study, small group discussion, and video based talks on relevant study material.
