Second Sunday of Lent

From Our Pastor

This week we will welcome Bishop Tylka as he celebrates confirmation for our eighth grade students. This sacrament completes our Christian initiation, along with baptism and Eucharist. The gift of the Holy Spirit guides us through life and strengthens us for our particular vocation. For example, confirmation is required before a man is ordained as a deacon and before a man or woman enters into religious life through the vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience. Confirmation is also strongly encouraged for couples preparing for marriage, as the gifts of the Holy Spirit can help husbands and wives live out their marital commitment to each other.

We typically celebrate confirmation in eighth grade. If anyone is older than this and has not received this sacrament, please contact me so we can make arrangements for you to be confirmed.

Our students have been preparing throughout the year for this celebration with our bishop. Please remember to pray for them that they may always be guided by Our Lord according to his will. Perhaps among the students to be confirmed, we may have a future priest or future religious, which would be a great blessing for our parish.

Please also remember the members of our OCIA class preparing through the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults. As they approach the end of their journey, they look forward to the Easter sacraments, which will also include confirmation.

During the Light of the World retreat this weekend, the retreatants will spend time deepening their faith and contemplating the sacraments. One of the themes will include responding to the guidance of the Holy Spirit more devoutly in our lives. May the Holy Spirit guide us all.

- Msgr. Gray

If you gave something up for the Lord, tough it out. Don't act like a Pharisee looking for a loophole.

When you go to the poor, you encounter Jesus

February is known as a month for love, mostly because of Valentine's Day. But I also think of it as a month of gratitude because for me the two are definitely intertwined.

So I want to take this opportunity to express the gratitude of all of us who work with the St. Vincent de Paul Society for all of you parishioners who donate so generously so that we have funding to help those in need. I only wish that you could hear the gratitude from those we are able to help. We explain to them where our funding comes from and that we work hard to be the very best stewards of that funding. Besides assisting with some financial aide, we also are able to refer them to a number of other agencies that may be helpful. And perhaps the most important thing we can offer is that their need has been heard, that we care even when we cannot assist financially, and that Jesus loves them as we pray with them. Those prayers often end with tears and hugs. In one recent case, several weeks after we met with her, a woman contacted us to update us on how well things were going for her and invited us to visit her in her new home.

Love and Gratitude! I am so grateful to all of you for the love you show with your donations. And I thank God for being able to share His love with others.

Prayer Request

A fellow Parishioner, Chad Rutschke, is serving on the team for the upcoming Men's Cursillo weekend, February 22-25. Please pray for Chad and the entire team as they complete their preparation for the weekend. Pray especially during the retreat that they may truly embody Christ to others.

Truth must be sought at all costs, but separate isolated truths will not do. Truth is like life; it has to be taken on its entirety or not at all... We must welcome truth even if it reproaches and inconveniences us—even if it appears in the place where we thought it could not be found.
