Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Our Pastor

For many years, we have collected backpacks and school supplies over the summer to help families in need as they return to school. Since it is already mid-July, and school is approaching, the time has come to collect these supplies again. This effort helps those students in our area, including needy families at St. Thomas as well as students in public schools. Please see the information in the bulletin and the bins in the narthex for your donations.

Last weekend, I celebrated twenty-eight years of priesthood after being ordained in July, 1997. While this anniversary is not one of the round numbers that are celebrated with great fanfare, I am still grateful for the gift of the priesthood and thankful for the years I have been able to give in service to the Church.

I recently invited some additional extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion to be trained. I take this opportunity to thank those who volunteer, especially with our Communion ministers to the homebound. Those who visit the sick perform a special act of charity, maintaining a connection with those who are no longer able to attend Mass. They fulfill the words of Christ who spoke about the corporal works of mercy: I was sick and you visited me.

I am also grateful to our ushers, readers, servers, and cantors who help with our Masses at St. Thomas. Please know that you all have an important and appreciated role in helping us to pray at Mass. Your attention to your responsibilities is an asset to our parish.

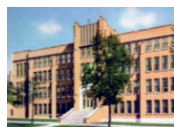

- Msgr. Gray

Millions of Monicas

Each month we invite all women to join Millions of Monicas in prayer July 22nd in the Daily Mass Chapel to pray for our loved ones, especially our children, who have fallen away from our faith. We pray together before the Blessed Sacrament that those we love will again find comfort in the faith and return to the Church.

Join with other mothers, grandmothers, step-mothers, aunts, Godmothers, etc., as we pray to grow in holiness and humility, and for our children's faithful return to the Catholic Church.
