Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

No servant can serve two masters.

He will either hate one
and love the other,
or be devoted to one
and despise the other.

You cannot serve both God and mammon.

Luke 16:13

From Our Pastor

Recent tragic events have been on many of our minds in just the past couple of weeks. A school shooting in Minneapolis makes every school family concerned about safety and security. Then the shooting of Charlie Kirk has brought about much sadness and a sense of anxiety about the direction of our country.

In our community and within our parish, there are a variety of political opinions, and I've heard individual parishioners share their concerns about politics, about politicians, and about policy. However, in a country that has thrived on vigorous political debate and has protected the freedom of speech in our Constitution, I'm confident that we can all agree that no one should lose their life over their political views.

I offer my own suggestion in these challenging times: I do not recommend that we avoid political discussions or conversations about our country, as if we should bury our opinions and hide them from one another. Rather, I encourage you to discuss your deeply held convictions with one another, with friends, and with family in an atmosphere of respect for the other. We should be able to interact kindly with one another as a brother or sister, even when we disagree. May we strive for charity and live in harmony with one another.

At St. Thomas School, we will take additional steps to increase security at the school, and especially when the children come to school Mass. To support these efforts, we will dedicate the majority of the proceeds from our Progressive Dinner to school safety efforts. More information will be available in the weeks ahead. For now, mark your calendars for Saturday, November 8, and plan to join your fellow parishioners and school families for a fun night of fellowship. Those who take part will gather for appetizers and then dinner in individual parishioner's homes and then conclude with dessert at the Country Club of Peoria.

Finally, I ask you to pray with our Diocese and Bishop for Vocations as we begin the St. Therese Novena for vocations. The novena begins on September 22nd in preparation for the October 1st feast day of St. Therese of Lisieux. More information is available at <https://www.cdop.org/pray>.

- Msgr. Gray

2025 Annual Diocesan Appeal

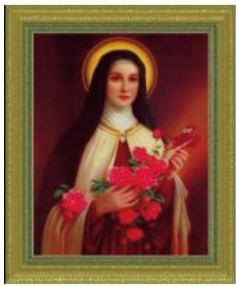

Thank you to all who made a pledge to the Annual Diocesan Appeal. We have begun to progress towards our goal of $110,554. Your generosity helps give food to the hungry, training to our seminarians, and give support to parishes. The ADA helps parishes support programs for forming children like Catechesis of the Good Shepard. If you have not completed a pledge card, please do so. There are envelopes in the narthex. Every dollar raised to make our goal supports important diocesan ministries, and every dollar raised over our goal will be kept in the parish. To those who have pledged, thank you!

The Novena to St. Theresa, Little Flower of Jesus

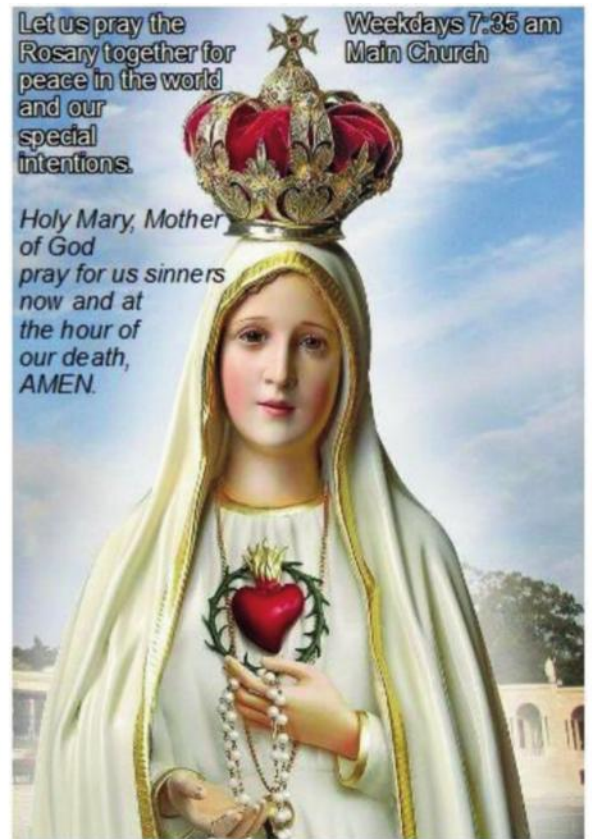

This nine day Novena is an excellent way to prepare for the feast day of Saint Therese of the Child Jesus, one of the greatest saints of the modern era. We also pray this novena for the specific intention of increasing Priestly vocations in our diocese, and the Catholic Church as a whole. Saint Therese, also known as the Little Flower, commonly gives roses or flowers as a sign to those who receive miracles by her intercession. With the power of Saint Therese's intercession in mind let us imitate her great and innocent confidence in the loving promises of our God. May this novena to St. Therese of Lisieux help us to follow in her footsteps as she followed in Our Lord's through her little way.

The Novena can be found here: St. Therese of Lisieux – 9 Day Novena - Angelus Press

Millions of Monicas

Each month we invite all women to join Millions of Monicas in prayer in the Daily Mass Chapel to pray for our loved ones, especially our children, who have fallen away from our faith. We pray together before the Blessed Sacrament that those we love will again find comfort in the faith and return to the Church

Join with other mothers, grandmothers, step-mothers, aunts, Godmothers, etc., as we pray to grow in holiness and humility, and for our children's faithful return to the Catholic Church.
