*The Most Holy Body & Blood of Jesus Christ
Corpus Christi*

From Our Pastor

Happy Feast of Corpus Christi. Please join us today after the 10:00 a.m. Mass for our Eucharistic procession around our campus as we honor the Body and Blood of Christ.

For the 150th anniversary of the Diocese of Peoria, a special historical commemorative book has been prepared that tells the story of the Diocese and of each of our parishes. This handsome and attractive book is being sold for $40 and will be a keepsake. As supplies are limited, I encourage you to pick up your copy this weekend. Please see the table at the bottom of the stairs after Mass.

Between Monday, June 15th, and Thursday, June 18th, the priests of the Diocese will be away at a clergy convocation with Bishop Tylka. For those four days, there will not be a daily Mass offered at St. Thomas. With the help of our deacons, we will continue to have a 7:00 a.m. Communion service on those days. Please be aware of this change in the schedule as the priests of the Diocese spend time on retreat and renewal outside the Diocese.

- Msgr. Gray

When you go to the poor, you encounter Jesus

As a Catholic do you ever feel like the lord is calling you to do more?

You're not sure what he is calling you to do but you're sure he is calling. I felt that same way about 5 years ago. I started looking at the Church website, at all the groups St. Thomas offered. I saw the St. Vincent DePaul Society and how they help the local poor with advice and with the money they get from the monthly collection. Two weeks had gone by, and I was still wondering what God was calling me to do. Then at Saturday evening Mass the St. Vincent DePaul Society gave a short talk after Mass trying to recruit new members. I knew this wasn't a coincidence. I stopped to talk to one of the members and quickly realized this was my calling. Within a few weeks of training, I began to do home visits. Like everyone else, I had my own misconceptions about the poor. I soon realized none of them were true. I also quickly realized I wasn't just helping the poor I was helping myself see the world the way Jesus does. On one visit a lady needed help paying for a car license sticker. She had just been let go from Cat after 14 years. Her husband was still working but their budget was tight. My partner and I talked to her about options and she began to cry. She just couldn't believe she had been fired. Then she told us she had decided to chase a dream of becoming a paid care giver for her Nephew who was mentally disabled. She said she had been praying about a way to help him for a long time. She again started to cry. I asked her do you think God just answered your prayer? She instantly stopped crying and smiled. She said, "I never thought of that. Yes I think he has answered my prayer." We got her a new license sticker and before we left, I asked if she would be alright now? She just smiled and said "yes." Your donations enable the St. Vincent DePaul Society to help our local Friends in need.

If you would like a chance to follow the voice of God talk to one of the St. Vincent DePaul members holding a collection box the next time you see one.

~ Mike Hallar

For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in. – Matthew 25: 35

The St. Thomas Food Pantry offers an excellent opportunity for students needing service hours! On Monday and Thursday mornings, federal holidays excepted, the pantry distributes groceries to neighbors in need in the Peoria Heights area. Packing groceries, registering pantry guests, restocking shelves, repackaging food and helping guests to their vehicles are tasks that students will perform while under adult supervision. An additional service opportunity occurs one Thursday afternoon per month when we receive a truckload of food products from Midwest Food Bank. On these days, students help adult volunteers unload the truck, repackage food, rotate stock and stock shelves. Students interested in earning service hours at the food pantry should contact Diana Janda at dianajanda1964@gmail.com by Friday, May 15th.
