Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Statement Regarding Release of Tickets for the Beatification of Archbishop Fulton Sheen

From Bishop Louis Tylka, Diocese of Peoria
It fills me with great joy to announce that we are releasing an additional allotment of tickets for the Mass of Beatification of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen.

The Mass of Beatification will be celebrated on Thursday, September 24, 2026, at 2:00 p.m. at The Dome at America's Center in St. Louis, Missouri, marking a historic moment for the Catholic Church in the United States and throughout the world. The Beatification is the final step before canonization and will bring Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen one step closer to becoming the first American-born bishop to be declared a saint.

Since tickets were first made available, I have been overwhelmed by the response from Catholics and people of goodwill around the world who desire to be part of this historic moment in the life of the Church. Your enthusiasm, prayers, and love for Archbishop Sheen have been both humbling and inspiring.

I encourage anyone who has been hoping to attend to secure their tickets as soon as possible.

The celebration on September 24 begins long before the Beatification Mass. The Dome will open at 8 a.m. CDT, welcoming pilgrims for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Eucharistic Adoration, and an interactive Catholic expo with dozens of ministries, apostolates, and exhibitors. Beginning at 10 a.m., pilgrims will be invited to participate in a special pre-Beatification program featuring inspiring reflections, music, and prayer.

The pre-Mass Procession will begin around 1:30 pm before the historic Mass of Beatification at 2:00 p.m., offering pilgrims a full day of worship, inspiration, and joyful celebration centered on the life and witness of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen. While the Beatification Mass is the centerpiece of these celebrations, it is only one part of a much larger pilgrimage experience. From September 15 through September 26, 2026, pilgrims are invited to participate in a rich series of prayerful, educational, and celebratory events honoring Archbishop Sheen's life and legacy. Together, these events invite pilgrims not simply to attend a historic occasion, but to embark on a pilgrimage of faith inspired by Archbishop Sheen's lifelong devotion to Jesus Christ.

For tickets for the Mass of Beatification and other events, the complete schedule of events, hotel information, and pilgrimage resources, please visit celebratesheen.com

When you go to the poor, you encounter Jesus

Summer time and the livin' is easy.... unless it isn't. Not easy if you don't have money to buy gas for your car and you can't get to work. Not easy if your part-time job cuts your hours because their customers can't spend money at their restaurant anymore. Not easy if your child runs a fever and you have to stay home with him and lose three days pay this week.

Affordability is a hot topic nowadays, as many people who have not worried about money now find themselves squeezed, having to decide what to cut back on. We have received requests for help from many persons who have never before had to ask for help

The St. Vincent de Paul Society is here to offer a personal connection with people who need someone to hear their concerns, to offer information about agencies that might be able to serve them, to show them how to budget their income to cover as many of their expenses as possible, and sometimes to give money to keep their utilities on or pay toward rent or a car repair.

We are a team working to give hope and help. We means everyone reading this message and being inspired to join the SVdP Society to visit people who call for assistance, as well as anyone who donates via the envelope sent monthly by the church or the collection basket on the first weekend of the month, and everyone who prays for the success of our mission.

Livin' might not be easy for many of our neighbors in Peoria and Peoria Heights, but caring about them is. St. Thomas Parish cares. The St. Vincent de Paul Society cares. And together we can turn that caring into Christian action.

Thank you, TEAM.

~ Pat Pusey
