From Our Pastor

Dear Parishioners of St. Thomas the Apostle,
On Sunday August 16th, 2026, we had a successful Parish picnic after the 10:00am Mass. Thank you all who volunteered to make this event a big success. I was very impressed by the Mass attendance, a sign of who we are at St. Thomas. I welcome back all of you from summer vacations and together let us continue making St. Thomas Parish a more vibrant Parish. Guided by the Holy Spirit and the Eucharist, St. Thomas the Apostle Parish aims to be an inclusive community that shares God's love through worship, service, and faith.

Our Parish Vision Statement is to be A welcoming place inspiring all to experience and live out God's love in action. My seven weeks at St. Thomas have revealed to me that you are a welcoming community, but we still have opportunities to become more welcoming.

We apologize for the last week's bulletin errors about the changes in the Mass and confession times. Below is the correct schedule. These changes will help us to build a Happy, Healthy, and Holy parish with two great communities, parish community and school community, that love each other and work together to build the Kingdom of God. Note that the weekend mass times remain the same and no 8:00am masses on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays. I have cancelled the confessions after the 5:00pm mass on Saturdays and officially added confessions after the 8:00am mass on Saturdays for 30 minutes.

Peace and Joy
