From Our Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

In the Bible, a steward is a person trusted to manage another person's household, property, or resources. Spiritually, a biblical steward is a manager – not the owner – of what God owns, tasked with using Time, Talents, and Treasure (money) to honor God and help others. We are called to be good stewards of these three Ts (Time, Talent, and Treasure). The Parish Ministries give all of us opportunities to use our three Ts wisely. I am happy to know that we already have some active ministries here at our parish such as Parish Council, Finance Council, St. Vincent DePaul, Ushers, Lectors, Extra Ministers of Communion, Altar Servers, St. Thomas the Apostle school and many more.

I have been able to meet with Our parish council twice since I arrived here. I am pleased to introduce to you our Parish Council members just in case you don't know who are in the Parish Council: 1. Connie Burek (President), 2. Matt Wigginton (Vice President), 3. Michelle LaBarre (Secretary), 4. Karen Cote, 5. Rick Picl, 6. John Meisinger, 7. Jody Maske, 8. Bob Stuart, 9. Kurt Becker, 10. Nicole Taylor. The Parish Council acts as a consultative body that advises the pastor with pastoral planning, priorities, and the overall mission of the parish.

I ask all of you, parishioners, to feel the ownership of our parish and if there is anything (material or spiritual) you see that would be very beneficial to our parish and school communities, you can share it with one of the parish council members who will in turn bring it to the pastor. Or you can bring it to me directly.

Peace and Joy

Fr. Johndamaseni Zilimu, Pastor

When you go to the poor, you encounter Jesus

We have all been challenged in different ways by rising inflation. Whether it is the cost of food, gas, utilities or rent - everything is rising at a record pace. For people with a little extra cushion, these increases are troublesome. To someone who was already just breaking even, it can be devastating. St. Thomas St. Vincent de Paul Society has started to receive more calls from people in need. In one 8-day period in June, we received 26 calls. Call volume is up and the amounts being requested are larger. The number of checks written was up 70% in June vs. May. In June, we paid approximately $6000 toward rent, Ameren, sewer, auto insurance, gas card, diapers and taxes.

With this increase in need, we are going through funds quickly and can use your help so we can continue to provide assistance to our neighbors. They are so grateful for the help, and also for the compassion and hopeful attitude that accompanies it. Thank you for supporting this community outreach. It means so much.

Sincerely,
Linda Waible
St. Vincent de Paul member
